Mr. Gonzalez utilized his trial skills at maximum level and succeeded in dismissing his client's case. One of his clients said that "I was unjustly charged with a Felony for taking back one of my employee's mobile phones after she was dismissed from her post. She called the police. They arrested me, charged me with Strong Arm Robbery and I spent the next two days in jail. I hired Dennis when I was released. He took over and turned a Felony into a Misdemeanor, then a Dismissal! Thanks Dennis, for finding justice in this case!"

Another client that was arrested for battery in Miami said, "Mr. Dennis Gonzalez is an excellent source for criminal cases and extraordinary attorney. He went above and beyond with my case and me feel cared about, welcomed, and understood. He always answered all my questions, explained and guided me step by step with the legal process, I always realized about his knowledge, experience and attention to the details. I was also impressed by his decency. I honestly recommend him with all the confidence that you would be in good hands."

The NOT-GUILTY Molestation Case

Dennis Gonzalez urged on another case that enclosed a great win on a serious life minimum mandatory case- the man was wrongfully accused of molesting his 9-year-old step daughter. He was able to get his life back after achieving a not guilty verdict for him. Initially this case received media coverage, but the media didn't pick up the verdict in 2018. Mr. Gonzalez focuses on this case with optimum commitment and integrity and it was a superb success and exclusively needs massive media coverage and attention to propagate a clean and white slate on the father's part not capable of molesting his beloved daughter.
